Challenge Grant Pledge Form

The Historic Andrew Peterson Farmstead was donated to the Carver County Historical Society in 2013. Peterson Farmstead was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1978 for Andrew Peterson’s horticulture work with apple trees. His 48 year diaries were used as a primary source for Wilhelm Moberg while writing his Emigrant book series.

In 2017, the CCHS completed the restoration of the north Peterson barn. It now focuses its attention on the farmhouse.

The Jeffris Family Foundation has agreed to grant $250,000 to the Carver County Historical Society if the Carver County Historical Society receives a total of at least $500,000 in eligible contributions and pledges no later than June 30, 2022. Irrevocable, unconditional, and binding pledges received by the Carver County Historical Society on or prior to June 20, 2022 count toward the Jeffris Family Foundation challenge grant so long as they are payable no later than June 30, 2022. Larger pledges (exceeding 25% of the project budget) may be subject to additional restrictions.

In support of the restoration of Historic Andrew Peterson Farmhouse, I/we hereby irrevocably and unconditionally pledge the amounts listed below toward the restoration project. Please apply the pledge toward the Jeffris Family Foundation challenge grant.
