

Name _____
Date _____

Before and After

In a good story characters don't stay the same they change and develop with events that occur to them. In the story Just A Dream the main character undergoes a big change because of a dream he had. In the first circle draw a picture of Walter before he had his dream. In the second circle draw a picture of Walter after the dream. Write a description under the each picture how Walter thought or acted in each picture.

Before the Dream

After the Dream
